Tejina de Isora is a picturesque town that developed around the Hermitage of the Virgen del Rosario de Tejina de Isora, an old grazing place that today is a modern and industrious town that refused to abandon its land and its roots. They continue to produce some of the most exquisite products on the island, such as honey and papaya. Just 5 minutes from the southern highway, this town is a great option for those looking for a quiet place, but being close to all the mod cons. This house has 3 floors without an elevator, and without neighbors above. The upper floor, with access to the street, we find the closed kitchen, a bathroom, a spacious living room with views and a 19 m2 terrace. On the mezzanine floor, we find a large room, a full bathroom and another smaller room. Going down the stairs, we find the main room, another full bathroom and access to another 19 m2 terrace with panoramic views of the South West of the island. A perfect place to enjoy with the family the most intimate and welcoming atmosphere. The covered garage and the storage room are an adjoining room. The house is sold furnished, ready to move into.
